

Some folks make great food.
Some can draw. Milk a cow.
But the special thing I do
Has you reading right now.

I've signed up members in a car.
At the doctor. In a pool.
I've gotten members in a bar.
Or the parking lot at school.

I've enrolled members on a plane.
Signed up my seamstress mid-hem.
Got lots of people in the rain.
Took Otha to an ATM.

A senator. A mayor.
Watch D.O.G.S. and police.
A lumberjack, a store clerk,
A trucker in fleece.

Signed up Jim Accomando
On an elevator ride.
Convinced someone in Poulsbo.
Crashed a wedding, asked the bride.

At the National Convention.
At an Apple Cup party.
Several seniors with no pension.
Several students who were tardy.

I've signed one up on a boat.
At a luau. At a fair.
Pulled a form from my coat
On a triple-dog dare.

At a Mexican fiesta.
During junior high detention.
Once woke folks from a siesta
To make sure they paid attention.

Enrolled a lady at the train station.
Asked while accepting an award.
Signed up my school's administration.
Got members of the school board.

Someone stuck in a storm,
And a guy in the shoe department.
Thank goodness I keep a form
In my car's glove compartment.

I'll ask just about anyone
And not only in September.
I'm simply sharing the value
Of being a PTA member!
